When Going Through Hell... Don't Stop!

A Survivor's Guide to Overcoming Anxiety and Clinical Depression

In the fall of 1996, author and counsellor Douglas Bloch suffered an adverse reaction to an antidepressant that plummeted him into a major depressive episode. For the next ten months, he was assailed by out-of-control anxiety attacks which alternated with dark, suicidal depressions. Each day felt like an eternity, as he struggled to stay alive in the face of overwhelming feelings of hopelessness and despair. In this book, Douglas shares his struggle with, and ultimate recovery from, a life-threatening depressive illness. He offers a 'survival plan for living in hell' that he adopted until the power of spirit, acting through a group of committed, loving people, brought about his recovery.

Resilience - If You're Going Through Hell, Keep Going

Splendid Publications Limited Fitness and well-being expert Paula Kerr used exercise and nutrition to navigate the toughest physical and emotional battles of her life and move forward. In Fitter Stronger - Resilience - If You're Going Through Hell, Keep Going, she explains her story in full. With nutrition hacks and work outs for all abilities, there are contributions from clinical experts and those who have used fitness to turn their lives around, including chef Michel Roux Jr and former Royal Marine and triple amputee Mark Ormrod OBE - called 'Britain's answer to Superman' by Prince Harry. This book identifies the vital coping mechanisms we all need when a grenade is thrown into our world and we need to adapt to survive. Carefully researched and beautifully presented, this is a practical guide to managing adversity, by creating a strong, healthy, mind and body. Paula Kerr was a successful journalist when she was diagnosed with breast cancer, after a routine operation. To help her navigate two gruelling years of treatment and maintain family life, she relied on a nutrient dense diet, regular exercise and a positive mindset, to aid her return to full health, climbing Ben Nevis between trips to the chemotherapy ward. Wishing to share her experience with others, Paula qualified as a personal trainer and created Fitter Stronger, offering health holidays and classes for those experiencing illness, injury or trauma. Fitter Stronger has grown into a hugely successful brand, including personal training, wellness breaks in the UK and South Africa, NHS and private medicine rehab clinics, and a youth fitness and motivation programme for primary, secondary and further education. In all areas of her work, she promotes exercise and nutrition as vital tools for a peaceful, healthy and energetic life. 'If you keep your mind and body strong, you are unstoppable.' - Paula Kerr

Lead Like Ike

Ten Business Strategies from the CEO of D-Day

Thomas Nelson "A novel, intriguing—and more importantly—highly instructive approach enabling us to truly grasp fundamental management principles. In the person of Dwight Eisenhower planning and executing the D-Day landings and the subsequent liberation of Europe, these basic concepts are vividly brought to life. As Loftus rightly observes, no CEO ever faced a more daunting, pressure-filled, obstacle-laden mission than did Ike. Perfect reading for these turbulent times." —Steve Forbes, Chairman & CEO, Forbes Media "Geoff Loftus has written an intriguing and highly useful book on Dwight Eisenhower's extraordinary ability as a leader. If you liked Ike before, you'll like him even more now. And you'll be grateful to Geoff Loftus." —Christopher Buckley, author of Boomsday and Thank You for Smoking "In Lead Like Ike, Geoff Loftus provides keen insights on management lessons drawn from one of the greatest battlefields in military history. The lessons may appear simple, but it's the simplest management principles that we often forget: Listen to your people. Set your vision. Be consistent about your message. Let your managers manage." —Salvatore J. Vitale, Senior Vice President, The Conference Board Who was the greatest CEO of the 20th century? A persuasive case can be made for General Dwight D. "Ike" Eisenhower, who undertook history's most harrowing executive assignment: Operation Overlord, the Allied invasion of Nazi-occupied Europe on June 6, 1944. In Lead Like Ike, business journalist and communications guru Geoff Loftus weaves a fly on-the-wall narrative from Ike's perspective as supreme allied commander overseeing the Normandy invasion. While swept into a gripping story that honors the sacrifice of all who fought and died on D-Day, you'll also be drawn to a cache of battle-tested strategies and tactics with direct applications to modern-day business leadership.

Churchill by Himself

In His Own Words

Rosetta Books Quotations by the great statesman who helped lead Britain through two world wars: "Magisterial . . . Should be in the library of every Churchill aficionado" (American Spectator). We shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender . . . Millions have been moved by these words—and by the hundreds of speeches given by Winston S. Churchill to rally the British public, spur its government to armament against Hitler, and defend the causes for which he believed. Churchill by Himself is the first collection of quotations from a leader who had as much talent for wit as he had for inspiration and exhortation. Edited by renowned Churchill scholar Richard Langworth, this volume is the definitive collection of important quotes from one of the twentieth century's most persuasive and brilliant orators, whose writings earned him a Nobel Prize in Literature in 1953.

Mann of My Dreams Book 1: If You're Going Through Hell Keep Going

JMS Books LLC Mark Vincent and Quinton Mann have finally kind of, sort of, exchanged promises. Mark has returned from an assignment on the West Coast, and he's looking forward to spending some quality time with his lover. After all, it's the St. Patrick's Day weekend. What could be better than a little beer, a little corned beef on rye, and Quinn in his bed? However, on Monday it's back to the grind -- this time to an almost empty department. Matheson is away on assignment and Ms. Parker, Mark's secretary, is taking sick time, something she never does. But these aren't the only signs of something unusual, well, more unusual than normal, going on. Gradually, Mark uncovers a series of events going back to the previous spring and involving not only his senior special agent but Theo Bascopolis, a former rent boy who is Mark's friend. While Mark unravels the threads of the Gordian knot the WBIS has become, he realizes how deep his feelings for Quinn have grown. But can a spy like Mark ever hope to be "the one" for a spook like Quinn?

A Life from Beginning to End

Independently Published Winston Churchill The man that the world knows as Winston Churchill looms large on the stage of world history. Like some sort of colossus from antiquity, Churchill strides between two major epochs in the world, one foot planted in the glory days of the British Empire when the sun never set on history's largest known conglomeration of imperial holdings and the other planted firmly in the aftermath of World War Two, and a post-war order that saw that empire collapse, with Britain barely hanging on to its own sovereignty in the wake. Inside you will read about... ✓ Love and War ✓ Courting the Americans ✓ The Allies Show their Teeth ✓ Preparing for the Post-war World ✓ Wrestling the Reins of Power ✓ Churchill's Hiatus ✓ The End of an Empire And much more! With the Iron Curtain descending over Europe, Churchill was the first to raise the alarm bell that signaled the start of the Cold War. Churchill was a master at the helm, navigating his country and to a much larger extent the world through some of its darkest hours, even while he battled some of his own personal demons of depression and doubt. ## I Had a Black Dog

Hachette UK 'I Had a Black Dog says with wit, insight, economy and complete understanding what other books take 300 pages to say. Brilliant and indispensable.' - Stephen Fry 'Finally, a book about depression that isn't a prescriptive self-help manual. Johnston's deftly expresses how lonely and isolating depression can be for sufferers. Poignant and humorous in equal measure.' Sunday Times There are many different breeds of Black Dog affecting millions of people from all walks of life. The Black Dog is an equal opportunity mongrel. It was Winston Churchill who popularized the phrase Black Dog to describe the bouts of depression he experienced for much of his life. Matthew Johnstone, a sufferer himself, has written and illustrated this moving and uplifting insight into what it is like to have a Black Dog as a companion and how he learned to tame it and bring it to heel.

Going Thru Hell

Rough Road Productions KYLIE RIPPONS is a SpongeBob pajama bottom wearing, Dodge Ram 1500 4x4 driving, USDA certified klutz, coffee-addicted mortal, seeking a normal life despite the constant harassment of gods and the ability to braid time. Constant immortal harassment forces Kylie to take drastic action, and she must braid time to save friends, her son, and herself, as the gods drive her into situations in which she must choose: kill a friend and permanently hide her son, leaving him motherless, or become a slave in exchange for his safety, leaving her soulless and insane. If only the gods allowed for personal choice.
